The third annual Russia Private Equity Awards were founded by PREQVECA, a publication and website dedicated to the private equity and venture capital industries in Russia, Ukraine, Kazakhstan and other CIS countries. Award recipients in various categories were selected based on online voting.

“We are pleased that Russia Partners has been recognized once again this year in the PREQVECA awards. We are proud of our involvement in the development of Russia's private equity industry during the past two decades. We look forward to continuing to influence the future growth and evolution of the industry in the years to come,” commented Drew Guff, Managing Director and Founding Partner of Siguler Guff and Russia Partners.

Operating since 1991, Russia Partners is one of the leading and most-established private equity investors in Russia and the countries of the former Soviet Union. The firm has managed six prior private equity funds totaling approximately $1.3 billion of capital commitments and more than 65 investments since inception. Russia Partners' senior executives have worked together for over 20 years, investing in the region through numerous economic cycles and investment climates.

Over 170 representatives from private equity and venture capital firms, investment banks, law firms, and consulting firms attended the conference, which was organized by PREQVECA and Cbonds Congress. This year's event was particularly significant because it marked the 20 year anniversary of Russia's private equity industry.
